

Our commitment to diversity and equality at {my}dentist

At {my}dentist, we take our commitments to diversity and equality seriously.

We provide equal opportunities and are committed to the principle of equality regardless of race, religion, creed, colour, nationality, gender, disability, age, gender re-assignment or sexual orientation.

We apply employment policies which are fair, equitable and consistent with the skills and abilities of our employees and the needs of the business.

We look to ensure that all employees are accorded equal opportunity for recruitment, training and promotion and, in all jobs of like work, on equal terms and conditions of employment.

We will not condone any discriminatory act or attitude in the conduct of our business with the public or our employees and acts of harassment or discrimination on the grounds of race, religion, gender, disability, age, gender re-assignment or sexual orientation are disciplinary offences.

We constantly review our policies and procedures and implement appropriate actions to help make positive changes where required, and we are determined to continue improving the diversity of our workforce at all levels to properly reflect the culture of our business.
